The Alaska Family Child Care Food Program is operated in accordance with the United State Department of Agriculture (USDA), which does not permit discrimination because of race, color, sex, age, disability, or national origin. Any person who believes he or she had been discriminated against in any USDA related activity should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, DC 20250.

Funding and Oversight

- USDA administers and funds the Alaska Family Child Care Food Program at the National level.
- Department of Education and Early Development, Food and Nutrition Services, administers the program at the State level.
- Our sponsoring organization is the Alaska Family Child Care Association. The AFCCA offers training and support for family child care providers; call 258-5436 for information on membership and trainings.
