The Alaska Family Child Care Association
Proudly presents the 21st Annual "For the Love of Kids" Child Care Conference

"Leaving Handprints On The World"

April 30 and May 1, 2010

Request for Workshop Proposals

The Alaska Family Child Care Association would like to invite you to submit a proposal to present a workshop at the 21st Annual "For the Love of Kids" Child Care Conference to be held April 30 and May 1, 2010, at the Millennium Alaskan Hotel in Anchorage, Alaska. The theme for year is, "Leaving Handprints On The World".

AFCCA is encouraging presenters to conduct a wide range of workshops designed to inform and educate early childhood professionals. It is our goal to present workshops for family child care providers, those working with of all ages, those working with children with special needs, parents, facility administrators and even center staff. Training opportunities such as these help in AFCCA's mission to promote and develop quality, professional child care for all children across the state of Alaska.

AFCCA will waive conference fees for presenters of a workshop on the day of their presentation. This entitles you to participate in the keynote address, guest speakers, and all the other workshops being presented. A buffet lunch for the first presenter of a workshop is included on the day you present. Additional lunches will be available for purchase at the registration desk. This is our way of saying thank you for and volunteering your time and expertise. Please note that equipment is the responsibility of the presenter.

Proposal Directions:

- Submit your application to AFCCA No Later Than March 15, 2010
- Develop a title and a short descriptive paragraph of the training to be published in the conference book
- Fill out this form to help us in scheduling preferences
- Submit a short bio to be published in the conference book

The AFCCA Board of Directors will make the final decisions and let you know of the assigned time space you're your proposed training based on the information provided. AFCCA will contact each presenter with the conference workshop confirmations with more detailed information such as date, time and location of the workshop to be held.

Again, thank you for helping AFCCA to success in its mission. Please feel free to pass a copy of this form to anyone who may be willing or interested in presenting a workshop.
